The People and Their Daily Troubles

YOURSELF in a MIRROR

BY JANE DIXON.

Clothes and the woman.
How inseparable are the two subjects!

As an index is a key to the contents of a book,
so does a wardrobe indicate the character of a woman.

Every woman, unconsciously or otherwise, selects her clothes with the notion of catching the fancy of man.

This excellent ambition may center itself on the fancy of one man or it may spread itself over an indefinite group of men, but the fact of its existence is no more deniable than the eternal thirst for love and admiration between the sexes.

Here, again, on the subject of clothes occurs one of the strangest paradoxes in the history of human conduct.

Almost every man, surely every right-minded man, dislikes loud, exaggerated, conspicuous clothes on women.

Every woman is thoroughly acquainted with this aversion, has been schooled in it, has come in contact with it at one time or another.

Yet any number of women go on making the same gross mistake in selection of clothes, for no other reason in the world except their own vanity and perversity.

There is the matter, for example,
of the bright red hat.

If today you should go forth in the highways and byways of your community and solicit the opinions of the first twelve men you meet on red hats, there is every chance in the world the verdict would be a unanimous "guilty." There might be one stubborn man on the jury who would hold out in favor of red hats.

That man will bear watching.

Now there is nothing under the summer sun wrong with a red hat.

On the contrary, such a colorful chapeau may be most becoming to certain feminine types. Men who cast an adverse vote will admit as much.

Yet—if you leave it to masculine selection, not one man in a million will select a red hat for a woman of his own family.

Why?
Ask the men themselves.

They will tell you a red hat is conspicuous. It looks a bit weller—loud. Style, beauty, becoming-ness are all lost in that one disagreeable thought of attracting undue attention.

The male of the species, if he is wholesome in mind and honorable in intention, is an amazingly modest creature.

His pride in the woman of his choice is not that of the showman, eager to exhibit his wares. Rather is it that of the private collector of gems who loves his possessions for their rare beauty and charm, and who is content to share this admiration and appreciation with a small circle of real friends.

Not long ago a man gave me this confidence concerning a certain woman of our acquaintance:

"She came down to the office to call on me one day," said the man.
"Just dropped in—no definite engagement. I started toward the reception room. On the way I happened to glance through a side door.
She did not see me. I was mighty glad I saw her first. Couldn't miss her as a matter of fact. She had on a new outfit, some sort of orange colored stuff. Never ran across such orany orange in my life. Considerable glare, that."

"What did you do?" I asked.
"What did I do? Ducked, of course. Sent word I wasn't in."

"Do you think that was quite nice?"

"The man looked at me in surprise. 'You don't suppose I was going to walk along the street with her in that get-up do you?' he demanded. 'I'd have left like a fool, or part of a parade—or, or something. No more. A woman has no right to make such a show of herself.'"

There you are. Marg judgment.

And I have no doubt the woman in question had thought to look her prettiest for this particular man, and why would she have taken the tremble to call on him.

Strolling up Fifth avenue, America's premiere fashion pathway, the other day, the fatality of exaggeration.

GASOLINE ALLEY—FATHER GETS HIS ORDERS

Money wasted. Effort wasted. Ambition wasted. Instead of achieving desirability, the young lady had taken on the character of a comic valentine. Yet, I have no doubt, in her feminine forwardness, she thought herself quite irresistible. It is an opinion too prevalent to be denied that men object to extreme décolleté. I believe there are few exceptions to this rule—especially as it concerns a man's sister, or the sweetheart he hopes to marry. Why, then, does each season chronicle a lower and still lower cut of corsage?
Why do women deliberately ignore this delicacy on the part of the right man, this sensitiveness which, by every law of reason, should belong to the woman herself rather than to her protector?
A frivolous butterfly of fashion will bankrupt the father who adores her, the husband who loves her, to buy glittering gowns so "V" backed and "U" fronted they expose every groove of skin, every blemish and fault of contour.
A woman will quarrel bitterly with her fiancé or her husband over a blouse so thin it is a confession rather than a covering. Engagements have been broken, marriages gone to rack and ruin over such a too-sheer frock.
And the perversity of it is the woman's ambition to please.
QUESTIONS ANSWERED
Question: How does the supply of oil in the United States compare with the rest of the world?
Answer: The Geological Survey states that of the "oil in sight," which amounts to about $9,000,000,000 barrels, the United States, including Alaska, has only 1,000,000,000 barrels. Forty-three billion barrels may be regarded as definitely in sight as shown by actual drilling with successful results. Foreign countries are using only half as much petroleum as the United States, but have seven times as much oil in the ground.
Q: How many people handle a paper bill in its making?
A: The Bureau of Printing and Engraving states that about fifty people work on or inspect a bill before it is issued.
Q: How did the name doughboy come to be applied to American soldiers?
A: There have been many conflicting stories concerning this term. One that seems plausible is that this was the name of a small cake issued to the sailors. Later it was applied to a button of similar shape worn by the infantrymen, and finally to the soldiers themselves.
Q: What is catgut?
A: This is a material employed in the manufacture of the strings of violins, harps, guitars and other musical instruments, and also used for cords carrying clock weights, bows for archers, and for whipcord. It is generally prepared from the intestines of sheep, rarely from those of the horse, ass or mule, and never from those of the cat.
Q: Has a real case of "black snow" ever been recorded?
A: The London Morning Post of Jan. 29, 1911, stated that a fall of black snow had occurred recently in the lower Rhine valley. In Switzerland, the most reasonable explanation offered for this was that in certain conditions of weather snow may take an appearance of blackness, which is quite deceptive. It appears that after the snowfall there was a slight thaw, and a very fine rain fell. The rain was still raining, a piercing cold and dry north or northeast wind set in and froze the rain on the surface of the snow. Underneath the crust of pure ice thus formed there was a small air-filled space and the light when reflected from the snow beneath, produced to the eye a dark appearance.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Protect Lives.
LOS ANGELES, May 6.—[To the Editor of The Times:] What is the value of a human life in Los Angeles? Is it worth $100? Then let the city require the men to whom the boating concessions in our parks are let to install and keep in repair the best in equipment for recover- ing drowning people from the bot- toms of our lakes, and insist on regular drills in the use of this equipment, which would not cost over a hundred dollars at the most. Yesterday a tragedy occurred at one of our public parks. A boat capsized and a man and child went into the water. The man saved the child, but went down and stayed himself. Two gallant youths dived into the ten-foot of muddy water

Was his life worth the $100? Body-recovering equipment is a matter, and one that the city should be required to maintain. MRS. CLARK.

MOTHER OF FIRST AMERICAN SOLDIER KILLED IN FRANCE

Mrs. Alice Gresham Dodd, First War Mother Of The Nation, Gives Entire Credit For Recovery Of Her Health To The Well Known Medicine, Tanlac

MRS. ALICE GRESHAM DODD, of Gavin Park, Evansville, Ind.

The following remarkable endorse- ment of Tanlac was given recently by Mrs. Alice Gresham Dodd, at the Gresham Memorial Home, Gavin Park, Evansville, Ind., which home was presented to her by the patriotic people of Indiana, as evidence of their appreciation of the services rendered to his country by her son, Corporal James B. Gresham, the first American soldier killed in France. Expressions of sympathy were received by Mrs. Dodd from all parts of the United States, and the newspapers of the country car- ried the story of the first "war mother."

The shock of her son's death re- sulted in the serious breakdown of Mrs. Dodd's health, but everyone will learn with interest and pleasure that she is now in splendid health again. When seen at her home re- cently, she made the following state- ment, giving the entire credit for her recovery to the well-known medi- cine, Tanlac.

"After my dear boy's death, I had a general breakdown in health," said Mrs. Dodd. "At first it was just indigestion. My food used to upset me and I had to diet myself very carefully, which wasn't much hardship as I lost all desire to eat. Then I had an attack of rheumatism, with severe pains in my shoulders, back and arms. Sometimes I used to suffer a great deal, and my joints would get all swollen up and stiff. I was able to do very little about the house, and at times couldn't even cook a meal. I got very nervous and restless, and at night would lay awake for hours, and lost many a night's sleep as a con- sequence."

The Endurance Test At Yale University

Dr. Irving Fisher reported—

SOME time ago in the Yale Medical Journal there was an article on the endurance test of every day life.

"The contestants won every test quite easily after living on fruits, nuts, vegetables and cereals."

Thus, these, the essential foods, built super-men—men of vim, vigor, sinew—which means one hundred per cent health.

Consider, therefore, the food values of the scientific foods—Fruited Wheat or Fruited Oats.

They combine, in easily digestible form, ALL the vital elements of choice fruits, vegetables, and grains.

They are logically the foods for you—you, who must stand the endurance test of every day life.

How Soon Shall We See the Big Fire in Memory Only?

Fire is preventable. Intelligent effort in reducing unnecessary hazards, together with a scientific system of vigilance, will retire serious blazes and conflagrations from the actual knowledge of civilized communities.

Fire Detection Service is a practical system of fire reporting which eliminates major fires by preventing the neglect of small blazes.

Precision electrical instruments are placed in every fire bay of protected premises. These instruments and the entire circuits by which they are joined are held under constant electrical test by trained operatives at the A. D. T. central station. An outbreak of fire is reported immediately, and the alarm relayed to Fire Headquarters, brings a Fire Company to the scene before the blaze gains headway or works extensive damage.

Mechanical precision is supplemented by human judgment and experience, providing a safe and dependable protection against fire.

The operation of Fire Detection Service is detailed in an illustrated booklet entitled "Curbing the Power of Flame." Sent free on request.

MAY HARNESS SEA OIL WELLS.

Speakers Six Miles Off Santa Barbara Coast Viewed by Big Company Men.

Experts supposed to be in the employ of a large oil company are investigating the bubbling oil wells in the Santa Barbara channel off the main-land from Goleta. Six miles off shore it is reported there is an area half a mile wide and two miles long where wells are pouring oil into the sea.

Closer in shore others are spouting, and a heavy film of oil lies on the surface of the sea. Reports also describe even heavier oil spouts near the islands. They are said to be traceable across Santa Barbara county to the Kern fields, through the Cuyama.

The main obstacle in the way of tapping the ocean wells is caused by the depth of the sea where they occur. Along the shore illuminating gas is continually escaping from the sands.

The completion of the wells is expected to be completed by the end of the month. The completion of the wells is expected to be completed by the end of the month.

The vessels, it is announced, will be 500 feet long, 75 feet in the beam and 15 feet in depth—larger than any other craft ever engaged in the oil business. They will have all-burning turbine engines and a contraption of twenty-five knots.

Each will provide luxurious accommodations for 575 passengers and be fitted to carry 3000 tons of freight and sixty automobiles.

The first vessel is to be completed in eighteen months and the other is to be completed in twenty-four months. The first vessel is to be completed in eighteen months and the other is to be completed in twenty-four months.

DELEGATES TO PARIS TRADE MEET CHOSEN. BUSINESS MEN FROM WORLD'S ENDS ARE TO GATHER IN FRANCE NEXT MONTH.

Delegates from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will attend the International Chamber of Commerce meeting to be held in Paris the next month. The delegates will be chosen from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

The plan to have prominent business men from all parts of the world at a joint meeting at Paris, was adopted by the International Trade Conference held at Atlantic City last October, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The idea behind the meeting is to bring business men in various countries together for a discussion of methods, which will result in the safeguarding of international trade against unnecessary trade and waste, the standardizing of international practices affecting commercial intercourse, the increase of the total production of the world so as to make products available to all peoples, and to create the mutual profits of international transactions.

It is also thought that in the cultivation of personal acquaintance among the business men and banks of the two hemispheres, there will be a lessening of old international prejudices and misunderstandings resulting often from commercial differences.

ACCUSED ACCUSES. Former Negro Juror Declares He Was Persecuted Before.

William Goodwin, accused of agreeing to receive a bribe while he was a juror in the recent manslaughter case against Oliver M. Towles, turned accused yesterday in Justice Sumner's court, where he declared on the stand that a brother of Towles made several efforts to bribe him during the killing trial. George M. Towles, the brother, is named in the charges against Goodwin. The case will be argued by Dep. Dist. Atty. Pitts and by S. G. Hahn, defense counsel, next Thursday.

FOR BOND ELECTION. School Board Names the Date and Fixes Amount of Issue.

Formal resolutions providing for the special election for school bonds were approved by the school board yesterday, and Tuesday June 8 was set as election day. The resolutions provide for $5,000,000 bonds for the elementary schools and $3,500,000 for the high schools.

After considerable debate the board, on recommendation of the Finance Committee, set the rate of interest at 5 1/2 per cent, it having been shown that any bonds bearing a lesser rate would be difficult to sell.

There will be 303 polling places. There will be open from 5 a.m. to 6 p.m.

CHILD'S HAIR ALL CAME OUT

With Milk Crust. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Heals. "When baby was six months old he developed a very bad case of milk crust. He could not sleep night or day. The milk crust was very disgusting and his head and cheeks were covered with a scale. His scalp was sore and red, especially when he scratched it, and his hair all came out. The trouble lasted about two months when I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment when he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. C. Bennett, R. BRUNTON EXPANDING.

NEW STAGES AND COMPANIES
AT MELROSE STUDIO.

By Grace Kingsley.

If Brunton studio keeps on expanding it looks as if the rest of Hollywood would soon become a mere suburb of that institution. Brunton's is a busy little town these days, with twelve companies working and others already signing up for space.

The Brunton companies alone are shortly to number three, according to Robert Brunton, head of the organization. There are to be two feature all-star companies and a serial. The serial concern and one all-star company are already at work and another feature organization is shortly to commence. Charles Hutchison and Josie Sedgwick are playing the lead in the serial, which is called "The Double Adventure."

J. Warren Kerrigan has just finished his Brunton contract and Mr. Brunton now proposes to go in for the making of all-star productions, featuring plays and directors, rather than the exploiting of any one individual.

New companies shortly to begin on the Brunton lot are the Gibraltar Film Company, starring Leah Baird, William Worthington directing, and the Del Company, with Roy Clements, making "The Tiger Coat." M. C. Levy of the Brunton company has gone to New York and expects to resign Mayflower's lease. He will also bring back some stories and possibly some players.

The Brunton company has just leased an additional ten acres adjoining the present studio, which makes in all, with the acreage in the Fairbanks studio on the opposite side of Melrose avenue, a total of forty-four acres. Besides, there is a large ranch belonging to Mr. Brunton, which may be used by the companies at any time they have need of such accommodation.

A new stage has just been built, in addition to the other five, measuring 30x120 feet, with thirty feet in the clear overhead. Fifty dressing rooms are being constructed to accommodate the companies working on this stage.

Margery Wilson, Director. A notable addition to the number of women film-makers has just been made. Margery Wilson, who directed "That Something," now playing at the Victory, is not only to have her own company, but she is also to direct the pictures. She will begin with comedies, but will later go into feature production under the name Margery Wilson Productions.

Miss Wilson is best known as an actress of much skill and appeal. She played the role of the slavey "That Something," and has starred in various other productions, including a number of Triangle pictures. But she likes directing best, and when a company of financiers offered to back her she delightedly accepted.

The new woman director expects to begin work within ten days. She has not yet decided where she will work, but will secure studio space in some large plant.

Photoplay Twinklers in Current and Coming Attractions

Margery Wilson
picture is to be Israel Zangwill's "Merely Mary Ann."

Winifred Westover leaves. In support of Buck Jones, in "Firebrand Trevison" and "Forbidden Trails," will leave Sunday for New York. She will star in film versions of various Ibsen plays, under a twenty-week contract with Swedish picture company. Her mother will accompany her.

Miss Westover's present trip is remarkable in that it will be her first outside the State of California. Jack Conway says. Jack Conway is directing a film version of Upton Sinclair's "The Moneychangers." Willing made at Brunton Studios, Conway's company is Betty Brice, Roy Stewart, Claire Adams, Gertrude Claire, Eddie Fell, Harvey Clark, Fred Star, George Webb and others.

Daily Prohibition Jobs. Hoot Gibson, Universal star, was sitting in a Los Angeles hotel lobby, a few evenings ago, when he thought he recognized a friend, a physician, a few feet away. Hoot sauntered over and said to the man: "Pardon me, but are you Dr. Walter?" "No," replied the stranger, "but I know where you can get some for $25 a quart."

Declines With Thanks. Talk about getting over with a bag in the film, information is being spread by Paramount that Charles Ray in "Paris Green" now showing at Grauman's, has already been offered a chance by eastern capitalists to play in his own company. Miss May, however, is not a believer in the star system and has declined the offer. She thinks it is better to work with an established organization than to try her fortune with a new one at this stage in her career.

Name India Chiefs. In the Famous Players plan to form a $3,000,000 company to exploit picture-making possibilities in the stock company for to be sent to India, and will work in conjunction with natives of the country in the photoplay feature.

Marguerite Marsh Present. "The Phantom Honeymoon," a thriller feature, with Marguerite Marsh in a leading role is showing at the Hippodrome. The vaudeville specialties include: Fred Ardath's Melody Rhapsody; Powell and Worth, blackface comedians; Eugene Brothers, experts on the horizontal bar; Balbridge and Grammer, in a singing act; Bussey's toy terriers, and Charles Fortino, comedy juggler.

Turpin Coming Home. Ben Turpin, the comedian, who appears in "Down on the Farm," now showing at the Garrick Theater, is returning to the Sennett studios. During the past three weeks he has been spending a vacation in the East.

Ann May
Fair Leading Women. Ann May is appearing in "Paris Green" at Grauman's; Margery Wilson, in "That Something," at Victory, and Louise Lovely in "The Symphony."

Picture in the East. The Metro Corporation is in a position to afford Lyttel an opportunity in drama, because of their affiliation with stage interests. Certain of the other large companies have similar connections.

Summer Specials. An interesting outline of productions has been made by Miller, general manager of the California Theater, to cover a portion of the summer period. Among the pictures which will be shown are "The Great Accident," with Jane Novak, Ann Forrest, Andrew Robinson, Lillian Langdon and Willard Louis; "Madame X," said to be one of Pauline Frederick's greatest screen features; "A Double-Dyed Deceiver," starring Jack Pickford; "The Girl with Mabel Normand; 'Jew Call Me Jim,' a Will Rogers picture; Rex Beach's "Cloning 'Em and 'Em King"; "Earthbound," these two being Eminent Authors' specials; "The Many Faces of Frederic," starring: "Trimmed with Red," featuring Madge Kennedy; a simulation of Clyde Fitch's stage play, "The Truth," a Tom Moore picture, "Orfer 666," and "Milestones."

On Screen First. Violet Heming is to arrive here via the screen just ahead of her stage production "Three Faces East." One of her Paramount-Artcraft productions, "The Cost," is to show next week at Grauman's Theater.

Mary and Doug Pictures. The next Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford features have been booked for the Rialto Theater, according to announcement by Sid Grauman. Fairbanks' photoplay, "The Mollycoddle," is to show immediately after the run of "Below the Surface," while Miss Pickford's release "Suds" will follow.

Egan Play in Rehearsal. The company engaged for "Sleek-a-Bed," shortly to be presented at the Egan Theater, is already in rehearsal. Members of the cast, other than those already announced are: Charles E. Evans, formerly of the team of Evans and Hoyt.

Orla Harlan, who appeared in many Hart plays; Helene Phillips of the David Warfield company; King Baggott and William Courtleigh. Wallace Reid and Mildred Harris Chaplin are to play principal roles.

In Nazimova Cast. Victor Potel, known as the "Slippery Slim" of the Essanay series of Snakeville rural fun films, has a comedy role in Nazimova's production of "The Heart of a Child," to show next week at the Kinetograph.

Mr. Potel is at present completing his first independent picture, his organization being Victor Potel Homepun. Comedies Company. The photoplay is titled "Slim Comes Back." The supporting cast includes: Ruby Kendrick, Thelma Percy, George Cummings, George Ward, Jake Abrams, Henry Rattenbary and others.

DANISH TENOR ON SYMPHONY PROGRAM. Paul Bjornskjold, the Danish tenor, who has been creating an impression in the East, will be the soloist of the final concert of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra this afternoon at the Auditorium.

Bjornskjold's rise in the music world has, it is said, been phenomenal. As a sailor aboard a Danish warship, he was heard singing by an American woman, who recognized his ability. She arranged a concert for him before musical people in Europe and, as a result, a fund was raised to enable him to engage in serious study. He spent six years in these studies—two years under the guidance of Leopold Rosenfeld at the vocal school of the Royal Danish Opera.

Later he took the leading roles in "Lohengrin," "Mistralism," "La Tosca," "The Girl of the Golden West," "Carmen" and "Lucia." He made a concert tour of this country in 1917 and was engaged to sing by three leading phonograph companies. He will sing two Wagner numbers in his present study.

The program for this concert will open with Hugo Rosenfeld's "Symphonic Epics," which given its premier. The other selections will be Swan Song from "Lohengrin" and Walter's song from "The Mastering" (Wagner) and "Symphony in B Minor, No. 3 (Alexander Borodin).

NEW DIRECTOR. Robert H. Poole, who has been managing director of the California Theater since S. L. Rothapel left for New York, has resigned in order to take the management of Harold Bell Wright's works. He is to be succeeded by Bert S. John, formerly in charge of the Auditorium here and a showman of many years' experience. Mr. John was connected with the Whitely theatrical enterprises in the Middle West for many years and produced successful comic operas.

Would Have a Better Effect.
A witty actor was telling a story to a number of fellow players at a club one night, and there was also present a dyspeptic newspaper man who suffered from insomnia. The actor told a story that the exception of the newspaper man, roared at the story.

"What's the matter?" asked someone.

"Nothing."

"Why don't you laugh at that good story?"

"Well, it's this way: I am going to save it until I get home. I find that this can't always be done. I go to bed laughing."—"Every body's Magazine."

SERVICE BOARD PLANS KILLED.

Amendments to Widen Powers are Filed by Council.

Social Workers on Hand to Kick Stay to Applaud.

Aloofness of Commissioners Fatal to Their Cause.

The proposal of the Social Service Commission that its powers be enlarged was unanimously killed yesterday by the Welfare Committee of the City Council.

Leading social service, charity and philanthropic workers of the city, who had gone to the City Hall to protest against the amendments put forward by the commission, enthusiastically applauded the action of Councilmen Workman, Orinwell and Fleming in burying the proposed legislation in the files. Mrs. E. K. Foster, chairman of the Alliance of Social Agencies, thanked the members of the Council committee in behalf of the alliance which is composed of fifty-six of the leading social service organizations of the city.

Protests on the part of the social service workers who had gathered at the committee meeting were made unnecessary by the failure of the members of the Social Service Commission to appear in behalf of the amendments. This, coupled with a letter from the commission, roundly rebuffed the Councilmen. The letter stated that the commissioners felt it was "incompatible with the dignity of this commission to enter into any discussion or

TOLLS WHEN IS A PUBLIC ROAD.

Former Assistant to County Counsel Pens Pamphlet to Guide Settlers.

To help the public, which has been harassed by questions as to when is a public road, Edward T. Bishop, formerly assistant County Counsel, yesterday issued a pamphlet on "Highways by Dedication." In it he states that when a road is not posted, is not barred by gates and has been traveled continuously by the public for five years, it becomes a public highway.

Mr. Bishop says that when he was in the County Counsel's office, weekly inquiries were made by settlers who wanted to know whether a road across their ranches could be barred against them. His answer was that, in those circumstances, gates can be knocked down.

debate concerning these matters." It was asked that the committee hold a separate conference with the commissioners.

This attitude was unanimously condemned by the members of the Council committee. Rev. T. C. Marshall read resolutions, adopted by the Alliance of Social Agencies, and stating that the measures if enacted "could not lead to duplication, confusion, loss of initiative and dissatisfaction on the part of other organizations."

Dr. John R. Haynes recommended to the committee that steps be taken to merge the county Public Welfare Commission and the city Social Service Commission in order to eliminate duplication and save public money. His recommendation was applauded.

The members of the Social Service Commission are: D. Joseph Coyne, president; Mrs. J. T. Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Lillian T. McCoy, Dr. Julius Lincoln and Mrs. Jules Kaufman.

"LINKVILLE CIRKIS"
TODAY'S ATTRACTION.

THREE RINGS, SIDE SHOWS AND CONCERT TO FEATURE HIGH SCHOOL BENEFIT.

Today the "Linkville Cirkis" will spread its tents over the grounds of the Lincoln High School campus as the biggest outdoor event ever attempted by any high school organization in the city.

The circus is being given by the students of Lincoln High to increase the scholarship fund founded to help support worthy boys and girls through college.

Every feature of a three-ring circus will be shown. There are to be fancy horseback riders, tight-rope performers, aerial actors, dancing horses, elephants and lions, and the inevitable concert after the main attraction. All of the actors, lion tapers, ring-masters, peanut vendors and other attaches are students of the high school.

Side shows of all kinds will be in force and in addition to the regular attraction there will be a mystery tent. This tent is supplied by the Lincoln Heights Board of Trade and the secrets of this mystic top are closely guarded.

The girls are arranging tea gardens, tea tents and tea booths and "cray stunts." The Santa Zoo has loaned part of their menagerie for the occasion. Dancing is to be one of the features of the "cirkis" and two jazz orchestras will keep the air filled with music.

There will be two shows, afternoon and evening.

SHIPMENT A RECORD.

Quarter-Million Worth of Potash in One Trainload.

The American Trona Corporation has arranged for the hauling of a trainload of thirty cars, approximately 1500 tons of potash, starting at once from their plant at Trona, Cal., to the plant of the Niagara Alkali Works, at Niagara Falls. The value of this trainload is about $250,000. This is the largest amount of potash to move from any single American plant at any one time.

The train will move over the Southern Pacific, to Corvado, Tex., thence by the R. L. & W. (Cotton Belt) to East St. Louis, and by the Wabash Railroad, reaching its destination in about fourteen days.

It was loaded and shipped in five days.

GET FILM JUDGMENT.

Two Win Suit Against Sunset Studios for Salaries.

John T. Loomis and C. W. McKnight recovered a judgment of $990 from James Youngdeer, the Sunset studios and other defendants in Judge Jackson's court yesterday. The defendant defaulted.

Messrs. Loomis and McKnight told of a desire to go into the motion-picture game. They testified that after they answered an advertisement Mr. Youngdeer arranged the salaries they were to receive. They worked at various times for a number of months before a contract was prepared, providing for good pay.

The plaintiffs said they acted, directed and did everything required of them, but never received compensation. They were represented by Attorney C. N. Carna.

HIS GIFT SCORPED.

Selected Dress for Bride: Now Asking for Divorce.

Timothy Cobos made the mistake of picking out a dress for his bride, Esther Cobos. In divorce proceedings before Judge Taft yesterday he said he became angry when he brought it home and tore it up. This constituted extreme cruelty, the husband contended.

The court observed that a man who had been married twenty years "would not do a thing like that." He wants to hear from Mrs. Cobos before deciding the case.
